February 14th- That day every year when we are reminded to say “I love you” in a Valentine. Even a simple card is a nice little gift to share.

Whether on a card or plain piece of paper here are some famous quotes for sentiments that will be sure to please:

Audrey Hepburn

“The best thing to hold onto in life is each other.”

George Sand

“There is only one happiness in this life, to love and be loved.”

Jane Austen

“There is no charm equal to tenderness of heart.”

Anonymous

“If someone cares about you, you won’t ever have to wonder how they feel, they’ll constantly remind you.”

Emily Bronte

“Whatever souls are made of, his and mine are the same.”

Paulo Coelho

“Love is just a word until someone comes along and gives it meaning.”

A. A. Milne

“If you live to be a hundred, I want to live to be a hundred minus one day so I never have to live without you.”

Nicholas Sparks

“Love is like the wind, you can’t see it but you can feel it.”

Just a few words can say it all. Even Hallmark has some advice for you – click HERE for their list of suggested love notes to write in Valentines. Whether it is for friends, family or sweeties they have something for you.

Have fun this Valentine’s Day (Tomorrow!) and give someone you love a Valentine message.

SPECIAL VALENTINE QUOTE OF THE WEEK:

“All you need is love.
But a little chocolate now
and then doesn't hurt.”

—Charles M. Schulz
