

JUST TRIVIA #2

1. The Abominable Snowman is also known as the _____
2. In the folk song, who is known as King of the Wild Frontier? _____
3. At what temperature Fahrenheit does water boil? _____
4. Where does the pitcher warm-up at a baseball game? _____
5. Who is the ruler of Wonderland in Alice in Wonderland? _____
6. What is the most common word used in the English language? _____
7. Are bulls really colorblind? _____
8. Where is the Avenue des Champs Elysees? _____
9. What is the motto of the Three Musketeers? _____
10. Where is it stated that all men are created equal? _____
11. How many stories are in the Empire State Building? _____
12. Who were the 3 Men in a Tub? _____
13. Which famous composer was deaf? _____
14. In which musical were the VonTrapp family featured? _____
15. What is sodium chloride better known as? _____
16. How long is a generation said to be? _____
17. What are the names of Donald Duck's nephews? _____
18. Name the 7 colors of the rainbow? _____
19. In which city is the Grand Ole Opry? _____
20. What word is the international distress signal? _____
21. How many dozen in a gross? _____
22. Who was Anne Frank hiding from? _____
23. Approximately how many words are in the English Language? _____
24. In baseball what do the initials "RBI" stand for? _____
25. Who were the ancient people of Peru? _____
26. What is the French expression for "Enjoy your Meal"? _____
27. What does NATO stand for? _____
28. What large city was once known as New Amsterdam? _____
29. What is the proper name for "birdie" in badminton? _____
30. Who did John Hinkey Jr. try to kill? _____

Answers: 1-5 Yeti-- Davie Crockett--212°--the bullpen--the Queen of Hearts 6-10 "I"—Yes—Paris--All for one and one for all--US Declaration of Independence, 11-15 102--butcher, baker candlestick maker—Beethoven--The Sound of Music—salt 16-20 25 years—Huey, Dewey, Louie—red, orange, yellow, green, indigo, blue, violet—Nashville--Mayday 21-25 12—the Nazis—800,000—runs batted in—the Incas 26-30 bon appétit—North Atlantic Treaty Organization—New York--shuttlecock—President Ronald Reagan